

READING BLUE COAT

An Independent Day School for Boys with a Co-Educational Sixth Form

DIRECTOR OF DRAMA

Founded in 1646, Reading Blue Coat is a leading independent day school of 490 boys aged 11 – 16, with a further 270 students in the co-educational Sixth Form. The School is located on a beautiful 46 acre campus in the village of Sonning, just outside Reading, overlooking the River Thames.

The School employs over 170 staff and offers a stimulating, friendly and supportive atmosphere in which each pupil can realise his or her full intellectual, physical and creative potential.

An enthusiastic, inspiring Drama specialist with outstanding subject knowledge and a flair for production is required from September 2019 to lead this excellent department.

Drama is a significant and exciting part of the school, covering everything from academic A level studies, House Drama competitions, major senior, middle and lower school productions, to involvement in our Shakespeare Festival. Candidates must be committed to supporting a wide range of dramatic experiences across the whole school.

Dedicated facilities are good, with planning permission for construction of an exciting new Performing Arts Centre.

Candidates will have a good degree in a relevant discipline; be able to teach Drama to A level; and demonstrate vision and leadership attributes.

The successful candidate will also be expected to contribute to the co-curricular offerings of the department and the wider life of the School, to which your energy, warmth and pastoral instincts will lend themselves.

We offer an excellent salary and benefits package, dependent on qualifications and experience.
